I don't think there will be any confusion. I just wanted to say hi and ask you a couple of questions. Shouldn't take more than 10-minutes. LMK, DAVID

Because we have been communicating with attorneys, it is best if we just email, so there is no confusion..

Hi Howard,

I hope this email finds you well. I wanted to give you a call today, but wasn't sure where was the best place to reach you. Please let me know and also what time is best for you and I will give you a call.

Subject: Efforts to resolve

Importance: High

Howard,

You and I have known each other now for a long time, and we should certainly be able to talk together to resolve issues between us, as you suggested when we met a little over a year ago in New Orleans, when we discussed this logo issue. You told me then you would need some time to figure out a way to come up with something that did not have so many similarities.

All I was counting on was that changes would be made to make your logo less similar, or more dissimilar to my Premium Balloon Accessories® logo, which was granted a Federal Registration last year covering every aspect of it. Howard, I spend a lot of money to establish my brands and all I hope is that you will willingly accept that and not do similar things as has been done with your logo change.

Can't we come to a gentleman's agreement to resolve this without us spending thousands and thousands of dollars and probably a lot more? You have always been a good guy, and we both know that nobody gets all the business, so why don't we just go forward and give each other the respect I feel we/you/me/us deserve?

I prefer to resolve this together than make attorney's rich and hope you agree to the same approach. I hope I am not forced to resolve this to protect my Federal Trademark rights through the legal system.

Please sleep on this and let's talk tomorrow. I will be available all day until 3:00PM E.S.T.

Thanks in advance,

DAVID
